Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 8915-F and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to IRS.gov/Form8915F.

What's New

SEP IRAs and SIMPLE IRAs. Section 601 of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022 allows for the creation of Roth accounts for SEP IRAs and SIMPLE IRAs beginning January 1, 2023. As a result, accounts we had previously referred to as "SEP IRAs" and "SIMPLE IRAs" in these instructions will now be called traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs, respectively. We will refer to the newly enacted Roth accounts as "Roth SEP IRAs" and "Roth SIMPLE IRAs," respectively. See, for example, the 2023 Instructions for Form 8606.

Reminders

Qualified 2021 and later disaster distributions (also known as qualified disaster recovery distributions). As a result of section 331 of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022, enacted December 29, 2022, you are now eligible for the benefits of Form 8915-F if you were adversely affected by a qualified 2021 or later disaster and you received a distribution described in Qualified Disaster Distribution Requirements or Qualified Distribution Requirements, later. Qualified disaster distributions (such as qualified 2021 disaster distributions, qualified 2022 disaster distributions, qualified 2023 disaster distributions, qualified 2024 disaster distributions, etc.) are also called qualified disaster recovery distributions.

Dollar limit. For qualified 2021 and later disasters, the dollar limit on Form 8915-F for retirement plan distributions is $22,000 per disaster. It was $100,000 but that was for qualified 2020 disasters.

Determining the qualified disaster distribution period, in Part I, for a disaster. The qualified disaster distribution period for each disaster still begins on the day the disaster began. The last day of the qualified disaster distribution period for most qualified 2021 disasters and many qualified 2022 disasters is June 26, 2023. But the last day of the qualified disaster distribution period for qualified 2023 and later disasters, some qualified 2022 disasters, and perhaps even a few qualified 2021 disasters will have to be separately calculated. See Qualified disaster distribution period, later.

Determining the qualified distribution repayment period, in Part IV, for a disaster. The qualified distribution repayment period for each disaster still begins on the day the disaster began. The last day of the qualified distribution repayment period for most qualified 2021 disasters and many qualified 2022 disasters is June 27, 2023. But the last day of the qualified distribution repayment period for qualified 2023 and later disasters, some qualified 2022 disasters, and perhaps even a few qualified 2021 disasters will have to be separately calculated. See Qualified Distribution Repayment Period, later.

Determining the disaster's FEMA number and other information. See Qualified disaster area, later, for information on where to find a disaster's FEMA number, beginning date, and declaration date.

Worksheet 1B. Worksheet 1B is a tool you may have to use in figuring amounts for lines 1a through 5 of Form 8915-F. See Worksheet 1B, later, to determine whether you must use Worksheet 1B. You can choose to use Worksheet 1B even if you are not required to do so.

General Instructions

Helpful Hints

Form 8915-F can be e-filed. Form 8915-F can be completed electronically and e-filed with your tax return.

Form 8915-F is a forever form. Form 8915-F is a redesigned Form 8915. Additional alphabetical Forms 8915 (that is, Form 8915-G, Form 8915-H, etc.) will not be issued. The same Form 8915-F will be used for distributions for qualified 2020 disasters (and qualified 2021 and later disasters) and for each year of reporting of income and repayments of those distributions. The boxes you check in items A and B will help us determine the exact year of the form you are filing, and the year of the qualified disasters, qualified disaster distributions, and qualified distributions you are reporting. Earlier Forms 8915 had a different alphabetical Form 8915 for each year of disasters and a different form for each year the alphabetical form existed. See How Do I Distinguish My Form 8915-F and Its Disasters From Other Forms 8915-F and When Should I Not Use a Form 8915-F, later.

 The Instructions for Form 8915-F (Rev. January 2023) and the Instructions for Form 8915-F (Rev. February 2022) contain information, including examples, relevant to earlier tax years.

This year. "This year" (as used on Form 8915-F and in these instructions) is the year of the form you check in item A of your Form 8915-F. For example, if you check 2023, "this year" is 2023.

How Do I Distinguish My Form 8915-F and Its Disasters From Other Forms 8915-F?

Name of form. These instructions will use different names to refer to your Form 8915-F depending on the boxes you check in items A and B at the top of page 1 of your Form 8915-F. For example, if you checked the 2023 box in item A and the 2022 box in item B, your form will be referred to in these instructions and elsewhere as "2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters)." See Names of disasters and distributions next.

Names of disasters and distributions. Except when referring to them generally, these instructions will refer to the different qualified disasters and qualified disaster distributions by their specific names using the year(s) you checked in item A and item B at the top of page 1 of your Form 8915-F. For example, if you checked 2023 in item B, your qualified disasters are referred to as "qualified 2023 disasters" and your qualified disaster distributions are referred to as "qualified 2023 disaster distributions."

Purpose of Form

If you were adversely affected by a qualified 2021 or later disaster, use Form 8915-F to report:

- A qualified disaster distribution described in Qualified disaster distribution requirements, later, that was made to you this year;
- A repayment of, or income from, a qualified disaster distribution reported on Part I of a Form 8915-F from this or an earlier year; or

- Income in 2021 and later years from qualified 2020 and later disaster distributions; and
- A qualified distribution described in Qualified 2021 and later disaster areas under Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, later, that you received this year.

If you were adversely affected by a qualified 2020 disaster, use Form 8915-F to report:

- A qualified disaster distribution described in Qualified disaster distribution requirements, later, that was made to you in 2021 (coronavirus-related distributions can't be made after December 30, 2020);
- A repayment of, or income from, a qualified disaster distribution (including a coronavirus-related distribution) in this year; or
- A qualified distribution described in Qualified 2021 and later disaster areas under Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, later, that you received on January 1, 2021, for the Washington (8593-DR-WA) disaster.

See Amending Form 8915-F, later.

Purpose of These Instructions

These instructions provide detailed information for use with your Form 8915-F. For your convenience, Parts I and II of Appendix A, Which Lines Should I Use, later, provide, as well, the lines you should complete on your Form 8915-F for all tax years applicable to 2020 and later disasters.

When Should I Not Use a Form 8915-F?

Reporting coronavirus-related and other distributions for qualified 2020 disasters made or received in 2020. This form replaces Form 8915-E for tax years beginning after 2020. Do not use a Form 8915-F to report, in Part I, qualified 2020 disaster distributions made in 2020 or, in Part IV, qualified distributions received in 2019 or 2020 for qualified 2020 disasters.

You will still use 2020 Form 8915-E to report coronavirus-related and other qualified disaster distributions made in 2020 and to report qualified distributions received in 2020 for qualified 2020 disasters.

Qualified 2019 and earlier disasters. Do not use Form 8915-F to report repayments or income from qualified disaster distributions for 2019 and earlier disasters.

Who Must File

File Form 8915-F for the year you checked in item A at the top of page 1 of the form if any of the following apply to you for that year for the disasters listed in items C and D.

- A qualified disaster distribution was made to you from an eligible retirement plan.
- You received a qualified distribution.
- A qualified disaster distribution was made to you in a prior year that you are including in income in equal amounts over 3 years and "this year" is a year within the 3-year period.
- You made a repayment of a qualified disaster distribution and the time for filing the Form 8915-F for that repayment has not expired.

Which Lines Should I Complete?

If you e-file your return, the software you use may determine which lines you need.

Fill in your name and social security number at the top of page 1 of your Form 8915-F. As indicated earlier, complete items A and B, selecting the item A tax year and the item B disaster year. Also, complete items C and D, as applicable.

You might not need to enter amounts on each line of your Form 8915-F. Parts I and II of Appendix A, Which Lines Should I Use, later, provide the lines you need to complete on Form 8915-F for each year relating to your disasters. The lines you use will depend on:

- Whether qualified disaster distributions were made to you,
- Whether you have received qualified distributions,
- Whether you are recognizing income from distributions, and
- Whether you are repaying distributions.

When and Where To File

File your Form 8915-F with your Form 1040, 1040-SR, or 1040-NR for the year checked in item A at the top of page 1 of your Form 8915-F. For example, you will file your 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters) with your 2023 Form 1040, 1040-SR, or 1040-NR.

The timing of your distributions and repayments will determine whether you need to file an amended return to claim them. To determine whether you need to amend your Form 8915-F, see Amending Form 8915-F, later.

What Is a Qualified Disaster Distribution?

The distributions that are a qualified disaster distributions for tax years 2021 or later follow.

For 2021, qualified disaster distributions are:

- The qualified 2019 disaster distributions for the Puerto Rico Earthquakes (DR-4473-PR) reported on 2021 Form 8915-D,
- The qualified 2020 disaster distributions for qualified 2020 disasters reported on 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), and
- The qualified 2021 disaster distributions for qualified 2021 disasters reported on 2021 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters).

For 2022, qualified disaster distributions are:

- The qualified 2021 disaster distributions for qualified 2021 disasters reported on 2022 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters), or
- The qualified 2022 disaster distributions for qualified 2022 disasters reported on 2022 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters).

For 2023, qualified disaster distributions are:

- The qualified 2021 disaster distributions for qualified 2020 disasters reported on 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters),
- The qualified 2022 disaster distributions for qualified 2022 disasters reported on 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), and

- The qualified 2023 disaster distributions for qualified 2023 disasters reported on 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters).

Qualified disaster distributions for 2024 and later years are the distributions reported, like those for other years, in Part I of a Form 8915-F for the year because they meet the criteria in the next section. In all cases, the year checked in item B of your Form 8915-F is the year in which the disaster began. There are always qualified disaster distributions that can be made for a disaster in the year the disaster began and, for certain disasters, in the year or 2 after the disaster began.

Qualified Disaster Distribution

How Is a Qualified Disaster Distribution Taxed?

Generally, a qualified disaster distribution is included in your income in equal amounts over 3 years, beginning with the year in which the distribution was made. However, if you elect, you can include the entire distribution in your income in the year the distribution was made.

Any repayments made before you file your return, by the due date (including extensions), and no later than 3 years and 1 day after the distribution was received, reduce the amount of the distribution included in your income.

Also, qualified disaster distributions aren't subject to the additional 10% tax (or the 25% additional tax for certain distributions from traditional SIMPLE and Roth SIMPLE IRAs) on early distributions.

If a taxpayer who spread the income from a qualified disaster distribution over 3 years dies before the last tax year of that 3-year period, the distribution may no longer be spread over 3 years. The remainder of the distribution must be reported on the return of the deceased taxpayer. Include the remainder in the line 13 and/or line 24 totals, as applicable, of the Form 8915-F for the year of their last tax return.

Qualified Disaster Distribution Requirements

A coronavirus-related distribution can't be made after 2020. See Qualified disaster distribution period, later, to figure when your qualified disaster distribution can be made. Also, a distribution is not a qualified disaster distribution if it is listed in Distributions that are not qualified disaster distributions, later. See Limit, later, for the dollar limit on qualified disaster distributions.

Qualified disaster distribution requirements.

Qualified disaster distributions must meet the following criteria. (Coronavirus-related distributions can't be made in 2021 or later years.) You must meet these requirements separately for each of your disasters that you are reporting in item C on Form 8915-F.

1. The distribution was made:
 - For 2020 disasters (other than the coronavirus), no later than June 24, 2021; or
 - For 2021 and later disasters, within the disaster's qualified disaster distribution period. See Qualified disaster distribution period, later.

2. Your main home was located in a qualified disaster area at any time during the disaster period shown for that area. See Main home, later. The qualified disaster area is the state, territory, or tribal government in which the disaster occurs.

3. You sustained an economic loss because of the disaster(s) in (2) above. Examples of an economic loss include, but aren't limited to: (a) loss, damage to, or destruction of real or personal property from fire, flooding, looting, vandalism, theft, wind, or other cause; (b) loss related to displacement from your home; or (c) loss of livelihood due to temporary or permanent layoffs.

If (1) through (3) apply, you can generally designate any distribution (including periodic payments and required minimum distributions) from an eligible retirement plan as a qualified disaster distribution, regardless of whether the distribution was made on account of a qualified disaster. Qualified disaster distributions are permitted without regard to your need or the actual amount of your economic loss. See Eligible retirement plan, later, for the list of plans from which qualified disaster distributions can be made.

A reduction or offset of your account balance in an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) in order to repay a loan can also be designated as a qualified disaster distribution. See Distribution of plan loan offsets, later.

Qualified disaster distribution period. As a result of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022, enacted December 29, 2022, the period for making qualified disaster distributions for qualified disasters that begin after 2020 does not have a set ending date based on the year of the disaster, but must be separately calculated for each of your qualified disasters. The qualified disaster distribution period for a qualified disaster will begin on the date the disaster begins and will end 179 days after whichever of the following occurs the latest.

- Disaster beginning date.
- Disaster declaration date.
- December 29, 2022.

All 2020 disasters. For 2020 disasters, these instructions replace Form 8915-E for 2021 and later tax years. The distribution period for all qualified 2020 disasters (other than coronavirus-related distributions) ended on June 24, 2021. The distribution period for coronavirus-related distributions ended December 30, 2020.

Most, but not all, 2021 and 2022 disasters. If your disaster began in 2021 (or 2022 on or before December 29, 2022) and your disaster was declared as a major disaster on or before December 29, 2022, then the period for making qualified disaster distributions for that disaster will end on June 26, 2023. June 26, 2023, is exactly 179 days after December 29, 2022.

Example. Mosley was eligible for qualified 2022 disaster distributions for the following 2022 disaster. Disaster: Virginia Severe Winter Storm and Snowstorm disaster (DR-4644-VA) (beginning date January 2, 2022) (declaration date March 11, 2022). Qualified disaster distributions can be made through June 26, 2023, for that disaster.

All other disasters, including some 2022 disasters.

For all other disasters (including 2022 disasters not described in Most, but not all, 2021 and 2022 disasters), the qualified disaster distribution period will end 179 days after the disaster beginning date or the disaster declaration date, whichever is later. If this section applies to your disaster, see Appendix C, Last Day To Make Qualified Disaster Distributions for Your Disaster, later, for the last date on which a qualified disaster distribution can be made for your disaster.

Example 1. Mosley was eligible for qualified 2022 disaster distributions for the Washington Severe Winter Storm, Straight-line Winds, Flooding, Landslides, and Mudslides disaster (DR-4682-WA) (beginning date November 3, 2022) (declaration date January 12, 2023). Qualified disaster distributions can be made for this disaster through July 10, 2023, even though this is a 2022 disaster. July 10, 2023, is exactly 179 days after January 12, 2023. See also Appendix C, later.

Example 2. Alex was eligible for qualified 2022 disaster distributions for the Havasupai Tribe Flooding Event disaster (DR-4681) (beginning date October 1, 2022) (declaration date December 30, 2022). Qualified disaster distributions can be made for this disaster through June 27, 2023, even though this is a 2022 disaster. June 27, 2023, is exactly 179 days after December 30, 2022. See also Appendix C, later.

Example 3. Sam was eligible for qualified 2023 disaster distributions for the Georgia Severe Weather disaster (DR-4685-GA) (beginning date January 12, 2023) (declaration date January 16, 2023). Qualified disaster distributions can be made for this disaster through July 14, 2023. July 14, 2023, is exactly 179 days after January 16, 2023. See also Appendix C, later.

Distributions that are not qualified disaster distributions. The following distributions are not qualified disaster distributions.

- Corrective distributions of elective deferrals and employee contributions that are returned to the employee (together with the income allocable thereto) in order to comply with the section 415 limitations.
- Excess elective deferrals under section 402(g), excess contributions under section 401(k), and excess aggregate contributions under section 401(m).
- Loans that are treated as deemed distributions pursuant to section 72(p).
- Dividends paid on applicable employer securities under section 404(k).
- The cost of current life insurance protection.
- Prohibited allocations that are treated as deemed distributions pursuant to section 409(p).
- Distributions that are permissible withdrawals from an eligible automatic contribution arrangement within the meaning of section 414(w).
- Distributions of premiums for accident or health insurance under Treasury Regulations section 1.402(a)-1(e)(1)(i).

Limit. For each qualified 2020 disaster, the total of your qualified disaster distributions from all plans is limited to $100,000. For each qualified 2021 or later disaster, the total of your qualified disaster distributions from all plans is limited to $22,000. You may allocate the amount among the plans by any reasonable method when determining the amounts on lines 2, 3, and 4 of column (b) if all three of the following apply.

1. You are not using Worksheet 1B.
2. You have distributions from more than one type of plan, such as a 401(k) plan and an IRA.
3. The total on line 5, column (a), of your Form 8915-F exceeds your total available qualified disaster distribution amount from line 1e of your Form 8915-F.

Distribution of plan loan offsets. A distribution of a plan loan offset is a distribution that occurs when, under the terms of a plan, the participant's accrued benefit is reduced (offset) in order to repay a loan. A distribution of a plan loan offset amount can occur for a variety of reasons, such as when a participant terminates employment or doesn't comply with the terms of repayment. Plan loan offsets are treated as actual distributions and are reported in box 1 of Form 1099-R.

Main home. Generally, your main home is the home where you live most of the time. A temporary absence due to special circumstances, such as illness, education, business, military service, evacuation, or vacation, won't change your main home.

Qualified disaster area. For qualified 2020 disasters, the list of qualified disaster areas is in Appendix B in the Instructions for Form 8915-F (Rev. February 2022). For qualified 2021 and later disasters, the qualified disaster area is the state, territory, or tribal government in which a qualified disaster, described next, occurred.

Qualified disaster. A qualified disaster is a disaster that the President has declared as a major disaster. It is also known as a federally declared major disaster. The FEMA numbers for these major disasters include the letters "DR" in capital letters. To determine whether the President has declared a disaster as a major disaster, go to FEMA.gov/disaster/declarations. On that page, make the four selections below and then click the Search and Filter Disasters box. The Declared Disasters table in these instructions displays how that FEMA page appears.

1. In the Declaration Date box:
 - Under Year (Start), enter the year before your disaster began;
 - Under Year (End), enter a year that is 2 years after the year in which your disaster began, if available. Otherwise, enter the year after the disaster began.
2. In the Declaration Type box, select Major Disaster Declaration.
3. In the Incident Type box, select Any, or the type of disaster if you want to be more specific.
4. In the State/Tribe box, select or enter the state, territory, or tribal government in which your disaster occurred.

If your disaster is among the results for that search, place the FEMA number for your qualified disaster in item C on page 1 of your Form 8915-F, and in the table at the top of Part I and the table at the top of Part IV, as applicable. If your disaster is not among the results, your disaster is not a qualified disaster and you can't include that disaster on a Form 8915-F.

The Additional Tax and Qualified Disaster Distributions

Qualified disaster distributions aren't subject to the additional 10% tax (or the 25% additional tax for certain distributions from traditional SIMPLE and Roth SIMPLE IRAs) on early distributions and aren't required to be reported on Form 5329. However, the amount on line 7 of your Form 8915-F may be subject to the additional tax. See the Instructions for Form 5329 on how to figure the additional tax on your distributions.

Note. If you choose to treat a distribution as a qualified disaster distribution, it is not eligible for the 20% capital gain election or the 10-year tax option. For information on those options, see the instructions for Form 4972.

Repayment of a Qualified Disaster Distribution

If you choose, you can generally repay any portion of a qualified disaster distribution that is eligible for tax-free rollover treatment to an eligible retirement plan. Also, you can repay a qualified disaster distribution made on account of hardship from a retirement plan. However, see Exceptions, later, for qualified disaster distributions you can't repay.

Your repayment can't be made any earlier than the day after the date you received the qualified disaster distribution. You have 3 years from the day after the date you received the distribution to make a repayment. The amount of your repayment cannot be more than the amount of the original distribution. Amounts that are repaid are treated as a trustee-to-trustee transfer and are not included in income. Also, for purposes of the one-rollover-per-year limitation for IRAs, a repayment to an IRA is not considered a rollover.

Include on this year's Form 8915-F any repayments you made before filing this year's return. Any repayments you made will reduce the amount of qualified disaster distributions reported on this year's return. Do not include on this year's Form 8915-F any repayments you made later than the due date (including extensions) for filing this year's return. However, you may report those repayments on next year's return or carry the repayments back to an earlier year, as applicable. See Carrybacks under Amending Form 8915-F, later. As noted above, amounts paid later than 3 years and 1 day after you received the distribution can't be repayments.

Example 1. In 2022, Rudy made a qualified 2022 disaster distribution from their traditional IRA. Rudy did not check the box on line 22, choosing instead to spread the income from the distribution over 3 years (2022, 2023, and 2024). Rudy didn't repay any portion of the distribution until 2024 when Rudy made a repayment of that distribution before timely filing their 2023 return. Rudy includes those repayments on their 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). Those repayments reduced the amount of qualified 2022 disaster distributions reported on Rudy's return for 2023 and any excess may be carried back to 2022 on an amended 2022 Form 8915-F or forward to 2024.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except Rudy made the repayments in 2024, after the due date (including extensions) of Rudy's 2023 return. Rudy cannot include those repayments on their 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). The repayments will reduce the amount of Rudy's qualified 2022 disaster distributions made for 2024 and included in income on their 2024 return and any excess may be carried back on an amended 2022 or 2023 Form 8915-F to reduce income on their 2022 or 2023 return.

Eligible retirement plan. An eligible retirement plan can be any of the following.

- A qualified pension, profit-sharing, or stock bonus plan (including a 401(k) plan).
- A qualified annuity plan.
- A tax-sheltered annuity contract.
- A governmental section 457 deferred compensation plan.
- An IRA.

Exceptions. You cannot repay the following types of distributions.

1. Qualified disaster distributions received as a beneficiary (other than a surviving spouse).
2. Required minimum distributions.
3. Any distribution (other than from an IRA) that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments made (at least annually) for:
 - a. A period of 10 years or more,
 - b. Your life or life expectancy, or
 - c. The joint lives or joint life expectancies of you and your beneficiary.

Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas

How Is a Qualified Distribution Taxed?

A qualified distribution is included in your income in the year of the distribution. Any repayments made before you timely file your return for that year (including extensions) reduce the amount of the distribution included in your income on that return. Repayments made during the qualified distribution repayment period for the disaster, but after the year of the distribution, can be carried back to reduce the income from the distribution. Unlike with qualified disaster distributions, the income can't be spread over 3 years and the repayment period is much shorter than 3 years. See Qualified Distribution Repayment Period, later.

Also, qualified distributions aren't subject to the additional 10% tax (or the 25% additional tax for certain distributions from traditional SIMPLE and Roth SIMPLE IRAs) on early distributions.

Qualified Distribution Requirements

Qualified 2020 disaster areas. The earliest tax year in item A on Form 8915-F is 2021. Qualified distributions for only one 2020 disaster can be made in 2021, the Alaska Severe Storm, Flooding, Landslides, and Mudslides (4585-DR-AK). To be a qualified distribution on 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters) for the purchase or construction of a main home in a qualified 2020 disaster area, the distribution must meet all of the following requirements.

1. The disaster was the Alaska Severe Storm, Flooding, Landslides, and Mudslides (4585-DR-AK). Leave 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), Part IV, blank if your only qualified 2020 disaster was any other 2020 disaster (including the coronavirus).

2. The distribution is a hardship distribution from a 401(k) plan, a hardship distribution from a tax-sheltered annuity contract, or a qualified first-time homebuyer distribution from an IRA.

3. The distribution was received on January 1, 2021.

4. The distribution was to be used to purchase or construct a main home in Alaska and the main home was not purchased or constructed because of the disaster. See Main home, earlier. The disaster area is the state, territory, or tribal government in which the disaster occurs.

Qualified 2021 and later disaster areas. A qualified distribution for the purchase or construction of a main home in a qualified 2021 or later disaster area must meet all of the following requirements. See Main home and Qualified disaster area, earlier.

1. For qualified 2021 disasters, the first day of the disaster can be no earlier than January 26, 2021. For disasters with beginning dates after 2021, there is no restriction on when the disaster must begin.

2. The distribution was a hardship distribution from a 401(k) plan, a hardship distribution from a tax-sheltered annuity contract, or a qualified first-time homebuyer distribution from an IRA.

3. The distribution was received no more than 180 days before the first day of the disaster and no later than 30 days after the last day of the disaster.

4. The distribution was to be used to purchase or construct a main home in the disaster's qualified disaster area and the main home must not have been purchased or constructed because of the disaster. See Main home and Qualified disaster area, earlier.

The Additional Tax and Qualified Distributions

Qualified distributions aren't subject to the additional 10% tax (or the 25% additional tax for certain distributions from traditional SIMPLE and Roth SIMPLE IRAs) on early distributions and aren't required to be reported on Form 5329. However, the amount on line 32 of your Form 8915-F may be subject to the additional tax. See the Instructions for Form 5329 on how to figure the additional tax on your distributions.

If the qualified distribution was received in 2020 for a 2021 disaster, see Amending Form 8915-F, later.

Repayment of a Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home

You can choose to repay your qualified distribution to an eligible retirement plan at any time during the qualified disaster repayment period for the disaster. See Eligible retirement plan, earlier and Qualified Distribution Repayment Period below. Amounts that are repaid, during the qualified distribution repayment period for the disaster, are treated as a trustee-to-trustee transfer and are not included in income. For purposes of the one-rollover-per-year limitation for IRAs, a repayment to an IRA is not considered a rollover.

If the qualified distribution (or any portion thereof) is not repaid on or before the last day of the qualified distribution repayment period for the disaster, it may be taxable and may be subject to the additional 10% tax (or the additional 25% tax for certain traditional SIMPLE and Roth SIMPLE IRAs) on early distributions. See the Instructions for Form 5329 to figure any tax.

Qualified Distribution Repayment Period

The last day of the repayment period for 2020 and later disasters is below.

2020 disasters. The repayment period for a qualified distribution for the Alaska Severe Storm, Flooding, Landslides, and Mudslides (4585-DR-AK) disaster, to purchase or construct a main home in Alaska ended on June 25, 2021.

2021 and later disasters. As a result of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022, enacted December 29, 2022, the period for repaying a qualified distribution for a disaster that begins after 2020 does not have a set ending date, but must be calculated. The qualified distribution repayment period for each of those qualified disasters will begin on the date the disaster begins and will end 180 days after whichever of the following occurs the latest.

- Disaster beginning date.
- Disaster declaration date.

- December 29, 2022.

Most, but not all, 2021 and 2022 disasters. If your disaster began in 2021 or 2022 (on or before December 29, 2022) and your disaster was declared as a major disaster on or before December 29, 2022, then the period for repaying qualified distributions for that disaster will end on June 27, 2023. June 27, 2023, is exactly 180 days after December 29, 2022.

Example. Taylor was eligible for qualified distributions for the Virginia Severe Winter Storm and Snowstorm (DR-4644-VA) disaster (beginning date January 2, 2022). Taylor made a qualified distribution on December 5, 2021. Taylor has until June 27, 2023, to repay the qualified distribution.

All other 2021 and later disasters. For all other disasters, the qualified distribution repayment period will end 180 days after the disaster beginning date or the disaster declaration date, whichever is later. If this section applies to your disaster, see Appendix D, Last Day To Repay Your Part IV Qualified Distribution, later, for the last date on which you can repay a qualified distribution for your disaster.

Example 1. Mosley was eligible for qualified distributions for the Washington Severe Winter Storm, Straight-line Winds, Flooding, Landslides, and Mudslides (DR-4682-WA) disaster (beginning date November 3, 2022) (declaration date January 12, 2023). Qualified distributions can be repaid for this disaster through July 11, 2023, even though this is a 2022 disaster. July 11, 2023, is exactly 180 days after January 12, 2023. See Appendix D, later.

Example 2. Alex was eligible for qualified distributions for the Havasupai Tribe Flooding Event (DR-4681) disaster (beginning date October 1, 2022) (declaration date December 30, 2022). Qualified distributions can be repaid for this disaster through June 28, 2023, even though this is a 2022 disaster. June 28, 2023, is exactly 180 days after December 30, 2022. See Appendix D, later.

Example 3. Sam was eligible for qualified distributions for the Georgia Severe Weather (DR-4685-GA) disaster (beginning date January 12, 2023) (declaration date January 16, 2023). Qualified distributions can be repaid for this disaster through July 15, 2023. July 15, 2023, is exactly 180 days after January 16, 2023. See Appendix D, later.

Designating qualified distribution as qualified disaster distribution

You may be able to designate a qualified distribution for a disaster as a qualified disaster distribution if all of the following apply.

1. The distribution (or any portion thereof) is not repaid on or before the last day of the qualified distribution repayment period for the disaster.
2. The distribution can otherwise be treated as a qualified disaster distribution. See Qualified disaster distribution requirements, earlier.

Amending Form 8915-F

File Form 1040-X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, to amend a return you have already filed. Generally, Form 1040-X must be filed for a credit or refund within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later.

Qualified disaster distributions. Depending on when a repayment is made, you may need to file an amended tax return to refigure your taxable income.

Include on this year's Form 8915-F any timely repayments you made before filing this year's tax return. Do not include on that Form 8915-F any repayments you made later than the due date (including extensions) for filing that return.

If you make a timely repayment after timely filing this year's tax return but by the due date of that return (including extensions), include the repayment on an original or amended, as applicable, Form 8915-F for this year.

If you make a timely repayment after the due date of this year's return (including extensions) but before the due date of next year's return (including extensions), include the repayment on next year's Form 8915-F. However, you may file a Form 1040-X amending this year's or an earlier year's Form 8915-F or a 2020 Form 8915-E, as applicable.

Example 1. You received a coronavirus-related distribution in the amount of $9,000 on November 19, 2020. You choose to spread the $9,000 over 3 years ($3,000 in income for 2020, 2021, and 2022). On November 6, 2023, you make a repayment of $4,500. For 2023, all of the $4,500 is an excess repayment. You carry back $3,000 to 2022. The remaining excess repayment of $1,500 ($4,500 – $3,000) can be carried back to 2021. Also, instead of carrying that portion of the excess repayment back to 2021, you can choose to carry it back to 2020.

Example 2. You received a qualified 2020 disaster distribution in the amount of $90,000 in 2021. You elected to have the full income from the distribution recognized in 2021. On November 6, 2023, you make a repayment of $45,000. The entire $45,000 is carried back to 2021.

Example 3. You received a qualified 2021 disaster distribution in the amount of $21,000 in December 2022. You choose to spread the $21,000 over 3 years ($7,000 in income for 2022, 2023, and 2024). On November 6, 2024, you make a repayment of $10,000. For 2024, none of the qualified 2021 disaster distribution is included in income. The excess repayment of $3,000 ($10,000 – $7,000) can be carried back to 2023 or 2022.

Carrybacks. Follow Step 1 and Step 2 below when carrying back amounts. These steps are followed by examples.

Step 1. Determine the line(s) to use. If the original distribution was not an IRA distribution and you are carrying an excess repayment back to:

- 2020, include the carried back amount on 2020 Form 8915-E, line 10;

- 2021 or later, include the carried back amount on line 14 of the Form 8915-F back to which you are carrying the excess payment.

If the original distribution was an IRA distribution and you are carrying an excess repayment back to:

- 2020, include the carried back amount on 2020 Form 8915-E, line 18;
- 2021 or later, include the carried back amount on line 25 of the Form 8915-F back to which you are carrying the excess payment.

Step 2. Add this sentence. Enter "$_____ carryback from [enter here the year the excess carryback occurred] Form 8915-[E or F, as applicable]" on the dotted line to the left of the line on which you are including the carried back amount.

Example 1. On your 2020 Form 8915-E, you reported a coronavirus-related distribution of $9,000 made to you from your traditional IRA on April 14, 2020. You spread the income over 3 years ($3,000 in each of 2020, 2021, and 2022). You made no repayments of the distribution in 2020 or 2021. On March 14, 2023, you made a repayment of $4,500. The entire $4,500 is an excess repayment that can be carried back to 2020, 2021, or 2022. You carry back $3,000 to 2022, reporting $3,000 of the repayment on your 2022 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), line 25. The excess repayment of $1,500 can be carried back to 2021 and reported on your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), line 25, or carried back to 2020 and reported on your 2020 Form 8915-E, line 18. On the dotted line to the left of your 2022 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), line 25, you enter "$3,000 excess repayment from 2023 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters)." On the dotted line to the left of your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), line 25, or your 2020 Form 8915-E, line 18, whichever is applicable, you enter "$1,500 excess repayment from 2023 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters)."

Example 2. You suffered economic losses in 2022 as the result of DR-4649-PR. Your main home was in Puerto Rico when that disaster occurred. You received a qualified 2022 disaster distribution from your traditional IRA in the amount of $18,000 on April 29, 2022, spreading the income over 3 years (2022, 2023, and 2024). You filed your 2023 tax return on April 10, 2024. You made a repayment of $15,000 on April 29, 2024. You report $6,000 of the repayment on your 2024 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). You report the excess repayment of $9,000 as follows. You carry back $6,000 to 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), line 25, and $3,000 back to 2022 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), line 25. On the dotted line to the left of line 25 of your:

- 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), you enter "$6,000 excess repayment from 2024 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters)"; and
- 2022 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), you enter "$3,000 excess repayment from 2024 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters)."

Example 3. You suffered economic losses in 2022 as the result of DR-4649-PR. Your main home was in Puerto Rico when that disaster occurred. You received a qualified 2022 disaster distribution from your 401(k) plan in the amount of $15,000 on April 29, 2023. On your 2023 Form 8915-F, you elected to recognize the income from the full $15,000 in 2023, checking the check box on line 11 of that form. You filed your 2023 tax return on April 10, 2024. You made a repayment of $11,000 on April 29, 2024. You report the full $11,000 of the repayment on your 2024 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). It is all excess repayment, as you have no income from the distribution for that year. You carry back the full $11,000 to 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), line 14. On the dotted line to the left of 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), line 14, you enter "$11,000 excess repayment from 2024 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters)."

Qualified distributions for qualified 2021 and later disasters. You may reduce the amount of a qualified distribution included in income for a qualified disaster by the amount of a repayment made during the qualified distribution repayment period. (See Part IV—Qualified Distributions for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, later, for details on qualified distributions for qualified 2021 and later disasters.)

Qualified distributions received in 2020 for qualified 2021 disasters. If, in 2020, you received a qualified distribution for a qualified 2021 disaster, you may reduce the amount of a qualified distribution included in income in 2020 by the amount of a repayment made before June 28, 2023. (See Part IV—Qualified Distributions for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, later, for details on 2020 qualified distributions for qualified 2021 disasters.) Because a qualified distribution can be received up to 180 days before the disaster began and repayments for that distribution can be made from the beginning date of the disaster and through June 27, 2023, you may have a qualified distribution received in 2020 for which you are making repayments in 2021, 2022, or 2023. If you have already filed your 2020 return on which you reported the distribution, you should file an amended 2020 return to report the repayment. On your amended return (Form 1040-X), you will enter 2020 as the calendar year (or the 2020 fiscal year) at the top of page 1 and enter, in parentheses in column B of line 1, the amount of the repayment. In the Explanation of Changes section enter: "The amount I reported on [2020 Form 1040 or 1040-NR, line 4b, as applicable] is being reduced by a contribution made [mm/dd/2021, 2022, or 2023] to an eligible retirement plan in repayment of a qualified distribution made [mm/dd/2020] under section 331(b) of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022. The disaster was the name of the qualified 2021 disaster from [FEMA.gov/disaster/declarations]." Use the full name of the disaster. Include the state, territory, or tribal government and the FEMA DR number from FEMA.gov/disaster/declarations.

Example. You received a distribution from a traditional IRA on December 14, 2020, to construct a home in the Mississippi Severe Winter Storms (DR-4598-MS) disaster area which you did not construct because of that disaster. The disaster began February 11, 2021, and the distribution now qualifies as a qualified distribution. On April 14, 2023, you made a contribution that qualifies as a repayment of the distribution. You have already filed your 2020 return, a Form 1040. You will need to file a Form 1040-X for 2020 to claim the repayment. On your Form 1040-X, you enter "2020" on the line for the calendar year at the top of page 1 because you are a calendar year filer and, in parentheses in column B of line 1, you enter the amount of the repayment. In the Explanation of Changes section of your amended return, enter "The amount I reported on 2020 Form 1040, line 4b, is being reduced by a contribution made 04/14/2023 to an eligible retirement plan in repayment of a qualified distribution made 12/14/2020 under section 331(b) of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022. The disaster was the Mississippi Severe Winter Storms (DR-4598-MS) disaster."

Other qualified distributions received for qualified 2021 disasters and qualified distributions received for qualified 2022 and later disasters. Because a qualified distribution can be received up to 180 days before the disaster began, you may have a qualified distribution received in the year before the disaster began. If that happens, you will use a Form 8915-F on which the year in which the tax year of the qualified distribution was made is checked in item A, and the year in which the disaster began is checked in item B. If you need to report repayments of the distribution, you will not need to follow the special steps in Qualified distributions received in 2020 for qualified 2021 disasters, earlier, to file an amended return. However, you will need to make the repayments during the qualified distribution repayment period for the disaster. See Repayment of a Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home, earlier.

Form 1040-NR. If you are amending a Form 1040-NR, see the Instructions for Form 1040-X for which portions of Form 1040-X you will need to complete.

Specific Instructions

Married filers. If both you and your spouse are required to file Form 8915-F, file a separate Form 8915-F for each of you. If you and your spouse are both filing Forms 8915-F, the $22,000 limit on qualified 2021 and later disaster distributions and the elections on lines 11 and 22 to include all qualified disaster distributions in income (and not spread them over 3 years) are determined separately for each spouse. Similarly, if you and your spouse are both filing Forms 8915-F, the $100,000 limit on qualified 2020 disaster distributions made in 2021 and the elections on lines 11 and 22 to include all those qualified disaster distributions in income in the year of the distribution (and not spread them over 3 years) are determined separately for each spouse.

Name and social security number (SSN). If you file a joint return, enter only the name and SSN of the spouse whose information is being reported on the Form 8915-F.

Attach your completed worksheets. There are a total of 6, applicable worksheets in these instructions. Blank worksheets are in Appendix B, Worksheets, at the end of these instructions.

- Worksheet 1A-1 in Part I.
- Worksheet 1B in Part I.
- Worksheet 2 in Part II.
- Worksheet 3 in Part II.
- Worksheet 4 in Part III.
- Worksheet 5 in Part III.

Complete each worksheet on the last pages of these instructions that you use in determining amounts on your Form 8915-F. In the spaces provided at the top of each worksheet you complete, be sure to enter your name and social security number as they appear on your Form 8915-F. Attach your completed worksheet(s) to the back of your Form 8915-F.

Required General Information

Item A. Check the box that describes the tax year of the return to which you will be attaching your Form 8915-F. You can only check one box in item A. If the tax year of the return to which you are attaching your Form 8915-F is 2023, check the "2023" box in item A on your Form 8915-F.

Item B. Check the box that describes the calendar year in which the disaster(s) for which you are reporting distributions on your Form 8915-F began. You can only check one box in item B. The disasters for which you are reporting distributions, repayments, and/or income on your Form 8915-F must have all started in the same calendar year. If the disasters all started in 2023, check the box for "2023" in item B of your Form 8915-F.

Item C. Enter the FEMA DR number from Major Disasters Declarations at FEMA.gov/disaster/declarations. See Qualified disaster, earlier, for details. For example, for the 2023 Kansas Severe Storms, Straight-line Winds, Tornadoes, and Flooding disaster, you would enter DR-4747-KS.

Do not enter the coronavirus in item C.

Item D. Check the box in item D if the coronavirus is a disaster you are reporting on your Form 8915-F.

Part I—Total Distributions From All Retirement Plans (Including IRAs)

Coronavirus-related distributions. You can only report qualified disaster distributions for disasters listed in item C. Coronavirus-related distributions can't be made after December 30, 2020.

Part I disasters. List in the table at the top of Part I all the qualified disasters in item C for which qualified disaster distributions have been made to you this year. Only those disasters and those distributions can be considered in Part I.

List of disasters. If you are reporting no more than two disasters, list the FEMA number, the disaster declaration date, and the disaster beginning date for each disaster in the spaces provided under the Part I header. If you have more than two disasters, attach to the back of your Form 8915-F a statement with your name and SSN, and, for each disaster, the FEMA number, the disaster declaration date, and the disaster beginning date.

If you are using Worksheet 1B, leave lines 1a through 1e blank and complete lines 2 through 5 as that worksheet directs. See Worksheet 1B.

Lines 1a through 1d. You may not need to complete lines 1a through 1d. See Form 8915-F, line 1; also see When to leave lines 1a through 1d blank next.

When to leave lines 1a through 1d blank. Leave lines 1a through 1d blank on:

- Your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters) if either you didn't file 2020 Form 8915-E or the only disaster you reported on 2020 Form 8915-E was the coronavirus;
- This year's Form 8915-F if you listed only one 2021 or later disaster in the table at the top of Part I and a prior year's Form 8915-F doesn't list that disaster in item C;
- This year's Form 8915-F if you have listed 2021 or later disasters in the table at the top of Part I and no prior year's Form 8915-F lists any of those disasters in item C. For example, when you have checked the same year in item A and item B; or
- This year's Form 8915-F if you are using Worksheet 1B.

Otherwise, enter amounts on lines 1a through 1d as indicated later.

Example. You have checked 2023 in item A and item B of your Form 8915-F. You have listed only these two disasters both starting in 2023, Florida Severe Storms, Tornadoes, and Flooding (DR-4709-FL) and Florida Hurricane Idalia (DR-4734-FL), as your disasters in item C. You will leave lines 1a through 1d blank.

Line 1a. If you are required to complete line 1a, complete line 1a as follows.

- For 2020 disasters, multiply $100,000 by the disasters reported on your 2020 Form 8915-E that you are reporting in the table at the top of Part I on your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters). Enter that product on line 1a.
- For 2021 and later disasters:

If you only list one disaster in the table at the top of Part I on this year's Form 8915-F and that disaster was also reported in item C of a prior year's Form 8915-F, enter, on line 1a, $22,000.

If you list more than one disaster in the table at the top of Part I and all of your distributions for this year occurred within the qualified disaster distribution period (see Qualified disaster distribution period, earlier) for each of the disasters listed in the table at the top of Part I, enter, on line 1a, $22,000 times the number of disasters you entered both in the table at the top of Part I and in item C on a prior year's Form 8915-F.

Line 1b. If you are required to complete line 1b, complete line 1b as follows.

- For 2020 disasters, enter, on line 1b, the amount on 2020 Form 8915-E, line 4, column (c), if you completed that line (otherwise from the amount on 2020 Form 8915-E, line 4, column (b)) that reflects the distributions for the disasters you reported on 2020 Form 8915-E that you are now reporting in the table at the top of Part I of your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters). If you used Worksheet 2 in your 2020 Instructions for Form 8915-E, the amount for line 1b is figured by adding together the amounts in column (X), line 4, of that worksheet for the disasters you reported on 2020 Form 8915-E that you are reporting in item C of your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters).

- For 2021 and later disasters, enter on line 1b, the amount of the total qualified disaster distributions made to you in prior year(s) for all disasters in the table at the top of Part I.

Line 1d. If you are required to complete line 1d, complete line 1d as follows.

- Count the disasters reported in the table at the top of Part I on your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters) that were not reported on your 2020 Form 8915-E. Enter, on line 1d, the product of that number and $100,000.
- For 2021 and later disasters, count the disasters reported in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F that were not reported on an earlier Form 8915-F. Enter, on line 1d, the product of that number and $22,000.

Line 1e. Complete line 1e as follows.

- If you have been instructed above to leave lines 1a through 1d blank, enter on line 1e the product of $22,000 ($100,000 if you checked 2020 in item B on Form 8915-F) times the number of disasters you reported in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F.
- Otherwise, enter the sum of lines 1c and 1d on line 1e.

Examples for lines 1a through 1e.

Example 1. You had an economic loss as the result of Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred (DR-4625-NY) (beginning August 18, 2021). Qualified disaster distributions can be made through June 26, 2023, for that disaster. In May of 2023, qualified disaster distributions were made to you totalling $9,000 that you report on a 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters). Earlier, in January of 2022, qualified disaster distributions were made to you totalling $10,000 that you report on a 2022 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters). On line 1a of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters), you enter $22,000. On line 1b, you enter $10,000. On line 1c, you enter $12,000 ($22,000 minus $10,000). On line 1d, you enter -0- and on line 1e you enter $12,000.

Example 2. You had an economic loss as the result of Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred (DR-4625-NY) (beginning August 18, 2021) and Severe Winter Storm and Snowstorm (DR-4694-NY) (beginning December 23, 2022). Qualified disaster distributions can be made from August 18, 2021, through June 26, 2023, for the first disaster and December 23, 2022, through September 10, 2023, for the second disaster. You had an economic loss as the result of each of these disasters. In April of 2023 and May of 2023, an $8,000 and a $21,000 qualified disaster distribution were made to you, respectively. The distributions both occurred within the qualified disaster distribution period of each disaster and, therefore, could be qualified disaster distributions of either disaster. Earlier, in January of 2022, qualified disaster distributions were made to you totalling $10,000 that you report on a 2022 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters). You had listed one disaster, the Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred, as the disaster in the table at the top of Part I of your 2022 form. On line 1a of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters), you enter $22,000 for DR-4625-NY. On line 1b, you enter $10,000. On line 1c, you enter $12,000 ($22,000 minus $10,000). On line 1d, you enter $22,000 for DR-4694-NY. On line 1e, you enter $34,000.

Example 3. You had an economic loss as the result of Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred (DR-4625-NY) (beginning August 18, 2021). Qualified disaster distributions can be made through June 26, 2023, for that disaster. In May of 2023, qualified disaster distributions were made to you totalling $9,000 that you report on a 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters) listing the Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred as your only disaster in the table at the top of Part I. Earlier, in September of 2021, qualified disaster distributions were made to you totalling $10,000 that you report on a 2021 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters) again listing the Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred as your only disaster in the table at the top of Part I. On line 1a of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters), you enter $22,000. On line 1b, you enter $10,000. On line 1c, you enter $12,000 ($22,000 minus $10,000). On line 1d, you enter -0- and, on line 1e, you enter $12,000.

Example 4. You've only had an economic loss as the result of one qualified disaster: Remnants of Tropical Storm Fred (DR-4625-NY) (beginning August 18, 2021). Qualified disaster distributions can be made through June 26, 2023, for that disaster. In May of 2023, qualified disaster distributions were made to you totalling $9,000 that you report on a 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters). You also made qualified disaster distributions in 2021 and 2022 for this disaster. The qualified disaster distributions made to you for 2021 and 2022 for $5,000 and $2,000 are on line 6 of your 2021 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters) and 2022 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters), respectively. On line 1a of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2021 disasters), you enter $22,000. On line 1b, you enter $7,000 ($5,000 + $2,000). On line 1c, you enter $15,000 ($22,000 minus $7,000). On line 1d, you enter -0- and, on line 1e, you enter $15,000.

Column (a). Your available distributions for this year are the distributions you received for a retirement plan (including an IRA).

Beginning with Form 8915-F (Rev. January 2024), line 3 mentions traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs and line 4 lists Roth SEP and Roth SIMPLE IRAs. Section 601 of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022 allows for the creation of Roth accounts for SEP IRAs and SIMPLE IRAs beginning January 1, 2023. As a result, accounts we had previously referred to as "SEP IRAs" and "SIMPLE IRAs" in these instructions and on Form 8915-F, line 3, will now be called traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs, respectively. In the instructions and on Form 8915-F, line 4, we refer to the newly enacted Roth accounts as "Roth SEP IRAs" and "Roth SIMPLE IRAs," respectively.

Lines 2 through 4 in column (a). If you received a distribution from a retirement plan (including an IRA), you should receive a Form 1099-R. The amount of the distribution should be shown in box 1 of Form 1099-R. Enter the amounts from box 1 of all your Forms 1099-R on the lines 2 through 4 in column (a), as applicable.

Column (b). The disasters in item C that are relevant to column (b) and to all of Part I are only the disasters you listed in the table at the top of Part I.

Beginning with Form 8915-F (Rev. January 2024), line 3 mentions traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs and line 4 lists Roth SEP and Roth SIMPLE IRAs. Section 601 of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022 allows for the creation of Roth accounts for SEP IRAs and SIMPLE IRAs beginning January 1, 2023. As a result, accounts we had previously referred to as "SEP IRAs" and "SIMPLE IRAs" in these instructions and on Form 8915-F, line 3, will now be called traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs, respectively. In the instructions and on Form 8915-F, line 4, we refer to the newly enacted Roth accounts as "Roth SEP IRAs" and "Roth SIMPLE IRAs," respectively.

Lines 2 through 5 in column (b). If you are using Worksheet 1B, follow the instructions for the worksheet when completing these lines.

The amounts entered on lines 2 through 5 in column (b) depend on whether the amount on line 5 in column (a) is more than the amount on line 1e. The amount on line 5, column (a), is the sum of lines 2 through 4 in column (a) reduced by the total distributions from lines 2 through 4 in column (a) that aren't qualified disaster distributions.

- If the amount on line 5 in column (a) is equal to or less than the amount on line 1e, enter the amounts on lines 2 through 5 in column (a) on lines 2 through 5 in column (b).
- If the amount on line 5 in column (a) is more than the amount on line 1e, enter on lines 2 through 4 in column (b) the amounts on line 5 in column (a) adjusted by any reasonable means so that their sum on line 5 in column (b) equals the amount on line 1e.

Are You Claiming Qualified Disaster Distributions on Part I of more than one Form 8915 for this year?

This section does not apply to you unless you are completing Part I of Forms 8915-F having the same date checked in item A but different dates checked in item B, or you are completing Part I of both a 2021 Form 8915-D and a 2021 Form 8915-F.

Have you completed Part I of more than one Form 8915-F for this year? For example, you are completing a 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters) and a 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). The forms should be completed starting with the Form 8915-F for the oldest disasters and ending with the Form 8915-F for the most recent disasters. Your available distributions for Part I of your 2nd Form 8915-F for this year are the distributions left after completing Part I of the first Form 8915-F. If you are filing three Forms 8915-F for this year, which could possibly happen in 2023, your available distributions for your 3rd Form 8915-F for this year are the distributions left after completing Part I of the first two Forms 8915-F. See Line 7, later, for the amount to place on line 7 of your 1st Form 8915-F (or your 1st and 2nd Form 8915-F if you are filing three Forms 8915-F for this year).

Are you completing Part I of both a 2021 Form 8915-D and a 2021 Form 8915-F? If so, complete your forms in this order. First, complete 2021 Form 8915-D. Your available distributions for your 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters) are the distributions left after completing Part I of 2021 Form 8915-D. See Line 7, later, for the amount to place on line 7 of your 2021 Form 8915-F.

See the Filled-in Worksheet 1A-1 example below for guidance. A blank Worksheet 1A-1 is at the end of the instructions under Appendix B, Worksheets.

Example 1A-1. You suffered an economic loss as the result of Maine Severe Storm and Flooding (DR-4696-ME) (beginning date December 23, 2022; declaration date March 22, 2023) and Maine Severe Storm and Flooding (DR-4719-ME) (beginning date April 30, 2023; declaration date July 6, 2023). Your main home was in Maine during the disaster period for each disaster. Qualified disaster distributions can be made from December 23, 2022, through September 17, 2023, for the first disaster and April 30, 2023, through January 1, 2024, for the second disaster. No distributions were made until May 9, 2023, when a $40,000 qualified disaster distribution from your traditional IRA was made to you. The distribution occurred within the qualified disaster distribution period of each disaster and, therefore, could be a qualified disaster distribution of either disaster. You are completing 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters) and 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters). You complete your Form 8915-F reporting the older disaster first: 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). You report $22,000 from the distribution as a qualified 2022 disaster distribution on 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters). You report the remaining $18,000 from the distribution as qualified 2023 disaster distributions in the 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters) portion of your Filled-in Worksheet 1A-1 for Example 1A-1. On lines 2 through 4 of column (a) in Part I of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters), you enter the amounts shown in column (a), lines 2 through 4, of 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters) from your Filled-in Worksheet 1A-1 for Example 1A-1. Because the $18,000 is being used on 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters), it should not be counted on line 7 of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters) in determining the taxable amount of distributions on that form.

The numbers on the left border of the Filled-in Worksheet are line numbers that correspond to the lines on the indicated forms.

If you use Worksheet 1B, you will leave lines 1a through 1e of this year's Form 8915-F blank, but you will fill in the amounts for lines 2 through 4 in column (a) and for line 5 in column (b) on that form. Beginning with Form 8915-F (Rev. January 2024), line 3 mentions traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs and line 4 lists Roth SEP and Roth SIMPLE IRAs. Section 601 of the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022 allows for the creation of Roth accounts for SEP IRAs and SIMPLE IRAs beginning January 1, 2023. As a result, accounts we had previously referred to as "SEP IRAs" and "SIMPLE IRAs" in these instructions and on Form 8915-F, line 3, will now be called traditional SEP and traditional SIMPLE IRAs, respectively. In the instructions and on Form 8915-F, line 4, we refer to the newly enacted Roth accounts as "Roth SEP IRAs" and "Roth SIMPLE IRAs," respectively.

You can choose to use Worksheet 1B if your qualified disasters began in 2021 or later years. However, you must use Worksheet 1B to determine the amounts to place on lines 1 through 5 of this year's Form 8915-F if your qualified disasters began in 2021 or later years unless:

- You listed only one disaster in the table at the top of Part I; or
 - All of the distributions for this year occurred within the qualified disaster distribution period (see Qualified disaster distribution period, earlier) for each of the disasters listed in the table at the top of Part I.
- Line 1a of Form 8915-F provides the instructions for those situations.

In Worksheet 1B, column (a), enter your available distributions for this year for lines 2 through 4 from this year's Form 8915-F. In Worksheet 1B, column (X), start by entering the amounts you are planning to claim as qualified disaster distributions for each disaster listed in the table at the top of Part I on this year's Form 8915-F. A distribution will not be a qualified disaster distribution for this year unless the distribution is made within the qualified disaster distribution period for a disaster listed in the table at the top of Part I. Enter this year's distributions for each qualified disaster, from the table at the top of Part I, in a separate column. Your total qualified disaster distributions for each disaster can't exceed $22,000. For simplicity, apply your distributions in $22,000 amounts as available to each available disaster, beginning with the disaster with the earliest ending date for qualified disaster distributions. Examples 1 through 3, later, provide guidance. A blank Worksheet 1B is in Appendix B, Worksheets, at the end of the instructions.

Example 1. You were eligible for qualified 2023 disaster distributions for the following disasters. Disaster 1: Maine Severe Storm and Flooding (DR-4719-ME) (beginning date April 30, 2023; declaration date July 6, 2023). Disaster 2: Maine Severe Storm and Flooding (DR-4737-ME) (beginning date June 26, 2023; declaration date September 6, 2023). Your main home was in Maine during the disaster period for each disaster.

Qualified disaster distributions can be made from April 30, 2023, through January 1, 2024, for Disaster 1 and June 26, 2023, to March 3, 2024, for Disaster 2. In 2023, you received a traditional IRA distribution of $30,000. The distribution was made on September 8. You had no other distribution for 2023. You complete Worksheet 1B. You apply the distributions up to the $22,000 limit against each available disaster. You apply $22,000 of the September 8 distribution to Disaster 1 and $8,000 of the September 8 distribution to Disaster 2. In column (b), lines 2 through 5, of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters), you enter the amounts from lines 2 through 5 of your filled-in Worksheet 1B, column (b). See the Filled-in Worksheet 1B for Example 1.

Example 2. You have the same disasters as in Example 1. You are filing 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters). In 2023, two traditional IRA distributions were made to you: one on May 1 for $30,000 and one on September 17 for $14,000. You had no other distributions in 2023. You complete Worksheet 1B. You apply the distribution up to the $22,000 limit against each available disaster. You apply $22,000 of the May distribution to Disaster 1 and the entire $14,000 of the September distribution to Disaster 2. You can't apply any of the May distribution to Disaster 2 as it was not made during the qualified disaster distribution period for that disaster. In column (b), lines 2 through 5, of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters), you enter the amounts from lines 2 through 5 of your filled-in Worksheet 1B, column (b). See the Filled-in Worksheet 1B for Example 2.

Example 3. You were eligible for qualified 2023 disaster distributions for the following disasters. Disaster 1: Puerto Rico Severe Storm, Flooding and Landslides (DR-4649-PR) (beginning date February 4, 2022; declaration date March 29, 2022). Disaster 2: Puerto Rico Hurricane Fiona (DR-4671-PR) beginning date September 17, 2022; declaration date September 21, 2022). Your main home was in Puerto Rico during the disaster period for each disaster. Qualified disaster distributions can be made from February 4, 2022, through June 26, 2023, for Disaster 1 and September 17, 2022, through June 26, 2023, for Disaster 2. You had a $20,000 qualified 2022 disaster distribution from your 2022 Form 8915-F (2022 disasters) for Disaster 1. No other distributions were made until May 9, 2023, when a $40,000 qualified disaster distribution from your traditional IRA was made to you. The 2023 distribution occurred within the qualified disaster distribution period of each disaster and, therefore, could be a qualified disaster distribution of either disaster. You complete Worksheet 1B.

You apply the distributions up to the $22,000 limit against each available disaster. You apply $2,000 of the May 9, 2023, distribution to Disaster 1, as $20,000 of the $22,000 limit was used in 2022. You apply $22,000 of the May 9, 2023, distribution to Disaster 2. In column (b), lines 2 through 5, of your 2023 Form 8915-F (2023 disasters), you enter the amounts from lines 2 through 5 of your filled-in Worksheet 1B, column (b). See the Filled-in Worksheet 1B for Example 3.

1 You do not need to use Worksheet 1B if you checked 2020 in item B of this year's Form 8915-F. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you checked the same year in both item A and item B on this year's Form 8915-F, enter -0- for each listed Disaster in column X. If you did not enter in item C of a prior year's Form 8915-F any of the disasters listed in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F, enter -0- for each listed Disaster in column X. If you only entered one disaster in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F and that was the only disaster you listed in item C of the prior year's Form 8915-F, enter the amount from line 6 of the prior year's Form 8915-F. For each Disaster listed in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F that was not listed in item C on a Form 8915-F for a prior year, enter -0- in column (X). If you listed two or more disasters in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F and you filed a Form 8915-F for a prior year on which you listed in item C some or all of those disasters, enter in column (X) the amounts from line 5 in column (X) of the prior year's Worksheet 1B. If you did not use Worksheet 1B in that prior year, allocate the amount from line 6 of that prior year's Form 8915-F among the Disasters on line 1 of this worksheet using any reasonable method, except if all of the disasters listed on the prior year's Form 8915-F are not listed on this year's table at the top of Part I. In the latter case, allocate the amount on line 6 of that prior year's Form 8915-F first to the disasters not listed in the table at the top of Part I of this year's Form 8915-F, and allocate any remaining amount among the Disasters on line 1 of this Worksheet 1B using any reasonable method. Note. If the amount on line 1 of this worksheet is $22,000 or more for a disaster, you cannot have qualified disaster distributions in this year for that disaster. Remove that disaster from the list at the top of Part I on page 1 of this year's Form 8915-F and exclude it from your calculations for Part I of this year's Form 8915-F.

3 Distributions from traditional, traditional SEP, and traditional SIMPLE IRAs	$40,000 05/09/23	$2,000	$22,000			$24,000
4 Distributions from Roth, Roth SEP, and Roth SIMPLE IRAs						-0-
5 Totals. Add lines 2 through 4.	$44,000	$2,000	$22,000			$24,000

² Enter year checked in item B.
³ Enter the disaster's FEMA number.
⁴ Enter the date the distribution period for the disaster begins.
⁵ Enter the date the distribution period for the disaster ends.

Line 7. On line 7, enter the excess of the sum of lines 2 through 4 in column (a) over the amount on line 6, except if you are also completing Part IV, or are claiming qualified disaster distributions on Part I of more than one Form 8915 for this year. See If completing both Part I and Part IV or filing more than one Form 8915, later. The amount on line 7 should generally be apportioned into IRA and pension and annuity amounts, as applicable, and reported on your tax return as taxable distributions in accordance with Form 5329 and the instructions for that return. See the instructions for your tax return for reporting the distributions included on line 7. See also the Instructions for Form 5329 for this year.

Example. You reported a total of $40,000 in distributions in 2023 on lines 3 and 5 in column (a). The entire $40,000 in distributions were traditional IRA distributions. You reported $22,000 of those distributions on lines 3 and 5 in column (b) of your 2023 Form 8915-F. On line 7, you reported $18,000 ($40,000 minus $22,000). You are not completing Part IV. You will refer to your tax return, Form 5329, and their instructions for directions on how to treat this $18,000 in IRA distributions.

If completing both Part I and Part IV or filing more than one Form 8915.

Step 1. If you are completing both Part I and Part IV on this year's Form 8915-F:

- On line 7, enter the excess of the sum of lines 2 through 4 in column (a) over the amount on line 6 reduced by the amount from line 7 that is included on line 28 in Part IV.
- On the dotted line to the left of line 7, enter "$ _____ qualified distribution for Part IV, line 28."

Step 2. If you are claiming qualified disaster distributions on Part I of more than one Form 8915 for this year and you aren't completing Part IV on this year's Form 8915:

- On line 7, enter -0- and use that dollar amount as your available distributions on the other Form 8915 you are filing for this year.
- On the dotted line to the left of line 7, enter "$ _____ used as available distribution on Part I of * Form 8915-F (* disasters)."

Step 3. If you are claiming qualified disaster distributions on Part I of more than one Form 8915-F for this year and you are completing Part IV on this year's Form 8915-F for the earliest disasters.

- If, on the Form 8915-F for this year with the earliest disasters, the amount on line 30 reduced by the amount on line 31 is -0-, you don't have any available distributions for the other Forms 8915-F you are filing this year. However, if the amount on line 30 reduced by the amount on line 31 is a positive dollar amount, enter -0- on line 32 and use that dollar amount as your available distributions on the other Form 8915-F you are filing for this year.
- On the dotted line to the left of line 32, enter "$ _____ used as available distribution on Part I of * Form 8915-F (* disasters)."

Example. You reported a total of $40,000 in distributions in 2023 on lines 3 and 5 in column (a). The entire $40,000 in distributions were traditional IRA distributions. You reported $22,000 of those distributions on lines 3 and 5 in column (b) of your 2023 Form 8915-F. On line 7, you would report $18,000 ($40,000 minus $22,000), except you are also completing Part IV. In Part IV, you are claiming, as qualified distributions, $10,000 of the traditional IRA distributions that you reported in Part I. On line 7, you will only report $8,000 ($18,000 minus $10,000). On the dotted line to the left of line 7, you will enter "$10,000 qualified distribution for Part IV, line 28." You will refer to your tax return, Form 5329, and their instructions for directions on how to treat this $8,000 in IRA distributions.

Part II—Qualified Disaster Distributions From Retirement Plans (Other Than IRAs)

Line 9. Enter on line 9 your cost, if any. Your cost is generally your net investment in the plan. It does not include pre-tax contributions. If there is an amount in box 2a of Form 1099-R, the difference between box 1 and box 2a of Form 1099-R is usually your cost. Enter the difference on line 9.

If there is no amount in box 2a of Form 1099-R and the first box in box 2b is checked, the issuer of Form 1099-R may not have had all the facts needed to figure the taxable amount. You may want to get Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income, to help figure your taxable amount.

Also see Pub. 575 if you use the Simplified Method Worksheet to figure the taxable amount of your periodic payments and you designated some of these payments as qualified disaster distributions on the Form 8915-F you are completing.

If you have a Form 1099-R with both qualified disaster distributions and nonqualified distributions, you must separately figure the cost attributable to each distribution.

Line 11. If you don't check the box on line 11, you must spread the amount on line 10 over 3 years. By checking the box, you elect to include the entire amount in income in the year of distribution. You cannot make or change this election after the due date (including extensions) for your tax return. If you checked the box on line 22, you must check the box on line 11.

If the taxpayer died after receiving a qualified disaster distribution, the taxable amount of the distribution may not be spread beyond the year in which they died. The remainder of the distribution must be reported on the tax return of the deceased taxpayer.

Line 12. Use Worksheet 2 to figure the amount to enter on line 12 of your Form 8915-F.

A repayment is made in this year if it is made before you filed your return for this year, and not later than the due date (including extensions).

At any time during the 3-year period that begins the day after the date you received a qualified disaster distribution, you can repay any portion of the distribution to an eligible retirement plan that accepts rollover contributions. You cannot, however, repay more than the amount of the original distribution. See Repayment of a Qualified Disaster Distribution, earlier, for details.

Part IV—Qualified Distributions for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas

2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters). On 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters), qualified distributions can only be reported for the Alaska (4585-DR-AK) disaster.

Complete Part IV of 2021 Form 8915-F (2020 disasters) if, on January 1, 2021, you received a qualified distribution described in Qualified 2020 disaster areas under Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, earlier, for the Alaska (4585-DR-AK) disaster. You must complete the required lines of Part IV if you received a qualified distribution for the Alaska (4585-DR-AK) disaster on January 1, 2021, even if you made no repayments in 2021. Any portion of the qualified distribution not repaid before June 26, 2021, for the Alaska (4585-DR-AK) disaster will not be allowed the special tax benefits available to qualified distributions.

If you are required to file 2021 Form 8606, complete that form before you complete Part IV.

Note. A distribution for the purchase or construction of a main home may be treated as a qualified 2020 disaster distribution in certain circumstances. See Qualified 2020 disaster areas under Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, earlier.

Qualified distributions for 2021 and later disasters. Qualified distributions can be reported for qualified 2021 and later disasters. Complete Part IV of this year's Form 8915-F for your disasters in item C if, this year, you received a qualified distribution described in Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, earlier, for the disasters you listed in the table at the top of Part IV on page 4 of this year's Form 8915-F. You must complete the required lines of Part IV if you received a qualified distribution, even if you made no repayments this year. Any portion of the qualified distribution not repaid by the end of the disaster's qualified distribution repayment period will not be allowed the special tax benefits available to qualified distributions. If the repayment period for a qualified distribution for a disaster ends next year, repayments for that qualified distribution can be made in the next year and will be reported on an amended return for this year.

Example 1. A distribution Mosley received in February 2022 is a qualified distribution for the following 2022 disaster: the Virginia Severe Winter Storm and Snowstorm disaster (DR-4644-VA) (beginning date January 2, 2022) (declaration date March 11, 2022). Mosley can make repayments for this disaster through June 27, 2023. Mosley reports the distribution on Form 8915-F, Part IV, as a qualified distribution. Mosley doesn't make a repayment until May 2023. The repayment must be reported on an original or amended 2022 Form 8915-F, as applicable.

Example 2. A distribution Mosley received on December 15, 2022, is a qualified distribution for the following 2023 disaster: the Montana Flooding disaster (DR-4745-MT) (beginning date June 1, 2023) (declaration date October 11, 2023). Mosley can make repayments for this disaster through April 8, 2024. Mosley reports the distribution on Form 8915-F, Part IV, as a qualified distribution. Mosley doesn't make a repayment until March 2024. The repayment must be reported on an original or amended 2023 Form 8915-F, as applicable.

If you are required to file this year's Form 8606, complete that form before you complete Part IV.

Note. A distribution for the purchase or construction of a main home may be treated as a qualified disaster distribution made in this year in certain circumstances. See Qualified 2020 disaster areas and Qualified 2021 and later disaster areas under Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, earlier.

Lines 27 Through 32

You must complete lines 27 and 28 and all other applicable lines of Part IV for your qualified distribution(s).

Line 27. If you check the "Yes" box, but are not required to complete lines 28 through 32, you must still file the required Form 8915-F to show that you received a qualified distribution.

Line 28. Enter on line 28 your qualified distributions. See Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, earlier.

Don't include any distributions you designated as qualified disaster distributions reported on line 8 or line 20 of your Form 8915-F. Also, don't include any amounts reported on this year's Form 8606.

If you are completing both Part I and Part IV on this year's Form 8915-F, see Line 7, earlier.

Line 29. Enter on line 29 your cost, if any. Your cost is generally your net investment in the plan. It does not include pre-tax contributions. If there is an amount in box 2a of Form 1099-R, the difference between box 1 and box 2a of Form 1099-R is usually your cost. See Pub. 575 for more information about figuring your cost in the plan.

In many cases, a hardship distribution from a 401(k) plan or a tax-sheltered annuity contract will not have any cost.

If you received a first-time homebuyer distribution from an IRA, don't enter any amount on line 29. Any cost or basis in an IRA is figured on this year's Form 8606 if you made nondeductible contributions.

If you have a Form 1099-R with both qualified distributions and nonqualified distributions, you must separately figure the cost attributable to each distribution.

Line 31. You can repay any portion of a qualified distribution to an eligible retirement plan that accepts rollovers but the repayments must be made within the time frame specified in Repayment of a Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home, earlier.

You can't, however, repay more than the amount of the original distribution.

Enter on line 31 the amount of any repayments you make within the time frame specified. Don't include any repayments treated as rollovers on this year's Form 8606 or any repayments of nontaxable amounts.

Line 32. Most distributions from qualified retirement plans (including IRAs) made to you before you reach age 59½ are subject to an additional tax on early distributions and are reported on Form 5329. Qualified distributions for the purchase or construction of a main home in a qualified disaster area that were not repaid to an eligible retirement plan within the time frame specified in Qualified Distribution Repayment Period under Repayment of a Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home, earlier, may be subject to this additional tax unless you qualify for an exception. See the Instructions for Form 5329 for information on exceptions to this tax. If you have not repaid the distribution before the specified end date, you may be able to designate the qualified distribution as a qualified disaster distribution. See Qualified 2020 disaster areas and Qualified 2021 and later disaster areas under Qualified Distribution for the Purchase or Construction of a Main Home in Qualified Disaster Areas, earlier.
